

This exercise augments classroom discussion on writing.

1. List the members of your group below. Underline your name.
2. List the categories of related work as discussed in earlier classes. For each category, indicate how many references you have in your capstone report.

3. Identify each presentation and list three of its strengths and three of its weaknesses.

[additional space for answering the earlier question]